

CREATING JOBS FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES AND OTHER BARRIERS TO EMPLOYMENT

Since 1969

1960

1970

1980

1990

2000

2010

2020

1969

Ft. Logan Mental Health Center founded Bayaud Industries, Inc. and created a community-based workshop on the corner of Cherokee & Bayaud

Initial research had demonstrated employment creates stability, focus, and motivation for individuals that had mental health challenges

1972

Bayaud Industries as incorporated into a private non-profit corporation

1973

David Henninger is named Executive Director of Bayaud Industries

1977

Both Ft. Logan and Bayaud Industries were given a national award from the American Psychiatric Association for their outstanding services to clients. Bayaud East was created in downtown Aurora as a combination long term and transitional workshop program

1981

Bayaud received the Walter Elder Memorial Excellence in Government Award, sponsored by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management

Bayaud opens a quilt making business at the Bayaud East location at Colfax & Florence

1985

Bayaud Industries added a Skills Training Employment Program to train individuals in: Camera Operation, Processing Technician, Library Clerk and Duplicating Technician

1987

Bayaud Industries began offering Vocational Evaluation Services

1990

Bayaud was awarded its first contract from the president's committee for purchase to manage the mailroom at the EPA. Mailrooms are now one of our many lines of business solutions Bayaud uses for its supported employment programs

Bayaud hosts its first Annual MacDonald Family Tribute Luncheon, honoring Van MacDonald, who with a diagnosis of Autism, had a successful career with Bayaud

1992

Bayaud began recording and archiving master copies of all 9News local news broadcasts. Customers can purchase copies of any newscast or 9News production

1993

Bayaud qualifies for inclusion in Denver's Enterprise Zone contribution tax credit program

2000

Bayaud starts "Cavity Free at Three" with the Colorado Department of Health

2002

Source America supported Bayaud in opening a secure document destruction business

2006

Under Mayor John Hickenlooper, Bayaud becomes part of Denver's Ten Year Plan to End Homelessness

2007

Navigation program began offering individuals resource benefits acquisition

2009

Bayaud Industries became Bayaud Enterprises

2016

Denver Day Works becomes a partnership between Denver Human Services and Bayaud Enterprises

2017

Bayaud launches Colorado's first Mobile Laundry Service to help people experiencing homelessness to have clean clothing

2018

2nd Laundry Truck launches

Bayaud expands TANF (temporary assistance for needy families) services to help single parents access community benefits